

Los Angeles Builders Ball®

Thursday, September 28, 2017
The Beverly Hilton

Habitat for Humanity of Greater Los Angeles (Habitat LA) invites you to our 2017 Los Angeles Builders Ball® to be held on Thursday, September 28th at the historic Beverly Hilton Hotel.

This annual event celebrates Habitat LA's counterparts in the building and real estate industry, as well as partners and donors, who are helping transform the landscape of Los Angeles. It is also an evening to raise awareness and funds to help us reach our goal of empowering families and building strength and stability in our communities through homeownership.

The 2017 Los Angeles Builders Ball® awards are:

Builder of the Year: This award will be presented to a preeminent residential or commercial builder or developer in Los Angeles whose contributions demonstrate creativity and innovation.

Derek Fisher, Gloria Govan and 2016 Dream Builder Mauricio Umansky

Dream Builder: This award will be presented to outstanding individual(s) who have distinguished themselves through a commitment to community revitalization and investment.

Foundation Builder: This award will be presented to an outstanding organization that has made a transformational impact through advocacy work, a significant contribution to neighborhood investment, leadership in spearheading intentional change in communities and/or a lasting legacy of economic growth.

Lifetime Achievement Award: This award will honor a very special individual(s) for their commitment and great contributions to enhancing our communities in the greater Los Angeles area.

For sponsorship information, contact Helen Dosta, Director of Development at hdosta@habitatla.org or (424) 246-3653.
